The network marketing industry is constantly evolving and looking for new ways to service customers and associates around the world. Payments solutions are one subject that concern most companies, because of the high administrative costs involved.

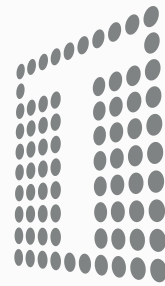

TRANSYSA offers the Network Marketing industry a payment solution that will optimize administrative procedures, and the way they compensate their associates/agents worldwide.

A customized stored value card program powered by our mycropay™ Platform will allow your company to send cards to all associates/agents and issue commissions through card transfers, reducing administrative costs of check processing and distribution.

TRANSYSA payment solution will give your associates/agents the freedom to access their funds in real-time at ATMs and multiple retail locations around the world.

TRANSYSA'S payment solution will allow your company to:

- Provide convenience to your Associates/Agents
- Reduce administrative costs by reducing check processing and distribution costs
- Distribute funds regardless of location
- Deposit commissions onto the stored value cards issued in the name of the Associates/Agents
- Make funds available to Associates/Agents on their scheduled compensation day
- Implement a bonus program
- Eliminate the costs of "stop payments" for lost or stolen checks
- Provide instant access to funds for your Associates/Agents
- Control multiple card accounts
- Enhances brand image and positioning through private labeling of the Associates/Agents card
